NATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHIC INTERPRETATION CENTER

19 November 1962

[Redacted]

It gives me great pleasure to officially transmit to you the attached letter of commendation from the President of the United States. You, as Deputy Director of the National Photographic Interpretation Center, played a significant role in the contributions made by this organization during the recent Cuban crisis. The manner in which you comported yourself, particularly in the support provided to the United States Mission to the United Nations and the briefings of the U.N. Security Council, was a demonstration of outstanding technical competence as well as an ability to react coolly and efficiently under fire. In so doing you earned great credit for yourself, the Center and your parent service.

You have my thanks for your exemplary performance during this period and for your continued loyal service to me and this organization.

Sincerely,

Arthur C. Lundahl
Director
